Star Expands;
'Carry a Message to Garcia ...'

Owing to the increasing advertising content of the newspaper The Star is establishing a minimum of 10 pages daily except for Saturday's abbreviated issue which will continue at 6 or 8 pages. This expansion applies also to the largest paper of the week, Thursday's edition, in which a "tight" 12 pages will be increased to 14, or a "tight" 14 enlarged to 16.

The heavier load of advertising in 1972 has reduced the "news hole" — the name our business gives to the space for wire reports and local news and pictures — and this matter is being remedied effective Monday, Sept. 11.

Also, we are making some minor additions to our 20-page rotary offset press which will increase the number of pages it can handle when printing four colors. At present 4-color printing is limited to 8 pages—4 in 4-color, the other 4 in black.

But the press is capable of running 12 pages with 2 in 4-color and 10 in black. This is called the "S-wrap." Three of the colors are applied by the offset system, while the 4th is printed direct on the paper web.

We planned the other day to run an "S-wrap" on 10 pages, but discovered at the last minute we needed an extra press roller—and had to settle for black and 2 colors rather than 3, to our embarrassment.

After that experience we ordered the required extra roller from the Joplin (Mo.) factory.

As legionnaires know, today's American Legion Magazine is a vastly improved publication. I received the September issue Thursday and found a wealth of factual special articles. Here is the lineup:

"Money and Property Pitfalls When You Move to Another State"

"The Rapid Spread of the Havercraft"

"The True Story of the Message to Garcia"

"My Two-Dollar Ulcer Cure"

Some was remembering my operation of a year ago. I suppose it was this particular article which drew my attention. But you would be wrong. The article I read was "The Message to Garcia."

I first heard of the Elbert Hubbard classic in the news room of the morning Wilkes-Barre (Pa.) Record in 1921 when I was a cub reporter laying out one semester while changing colleges.

This is the way it happened: The city editor, Robert Johnson, told another reporter to interview a certain character, and the reporter asked, "Where do I find him?"

"You," the city editor thundered, "should read 'The Message to Garcia'—now clear out of here and get going!"

The Elbert Hubbard classic is told in the September American Legion Magazine by Thomas J. Fleming.

A U.S. Army lieutenant named Andrew S. Rowan was called into the office of President McKinley and handed a sealed letter with orders to deliver it to a friendly rebel, General Calixto Garcia, then waging war against the Cuban dictatorship. Here is the Elbert Hubbard story:

"Rowan had never been to Cuba and never seen Garcia—but he asked no questions, raised no difficulties, sought no help, made no protests. He—and these are Hubbard's words—

"Took the letter, sealed it up in an oilskin pouch, strapped it over his heart, in four days landed by night off the coast of Cuba from an open boat, disappeared into the jungle, and in three weeks came out on the other side of the island, having traversed a hostile country on foot, and delivered his letter to Garcia."

Gubernatorial race is heating up

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Len E. Blaylock, Republican nominee for governor, accused Gov. Dale Bumpers, the Democratic nominee, of espousing "widely varying philosophies, depending on the audience or the occasion."

Blaylock told a news conference Thursday that on Aug. 26 Bumpers said that a big part of the disillusionment that citizens feel today for government on every level is caused "by the fact that they cannot get information about what government is doing."

Blaylock then said that in the Southern Governors Conference this week Bumpers said that an important tool of his own administration was secret cabinet meetings.

"Did the same tongue utter this diverging statements?"

Kissinger reportedly okayed trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — The lawyer for James Hoffa said today that presidential adviser Henry Kissinger approved a plan for the former Teamsters Union president to travel to North Vietnam and seek the release of American prisoners of war.

William L. Taub of New York said today that Kissinger was informed on July 5 in San Clemente, Calif., that Hoffa had been invited by the North Vietnamese trade union movement to visit Hanoi. "Kissinger approved the plans," Taub said, "but asked that the trip be postponed until after July 30."

Taub was responding to actions Thursday by Secretary of State William P. Rogers who revoked the passport validation that would have allowed Hoffa to travel to Hanoi.

The secretary indicated through his press officer Charles W. Bray the revocation was the result of "procedural irregularities" in the way used to validate Hoffa's passport.

Blaylock asked, "Will the real Dale Bumpers please stand up?"

Bumpers said after the Blaylock news conference that secrecy was not a big factor in the meetings of his cabinet, but when asked if he would permit newsmen to observe them, he said he would not.

"Well, when the President of the United States opens his cabinet meetings, I'll open mine,"

Special agents scour hills in search for slayers of 8

CHRISTIANSTED, St. Croix, V.I. (AP) — A posse of specially trained FBI agents scoured rugged hill country today for the slayers of eight Americans gunned down in the holdup of a golf resort.

Using a helicopter and other aircraft as spotters, about 150 federal agents, police and federal marshals were involved in the search in an area laden with thick underbrush. The posse concentrated its efforts adjacent to the luxury Fountain Valley Golf Course owned by the Rockefeller family 15 miles southeast of Christiansted.

Atty. Gen. Ronald H. Tonkin of the Virgin Islands said Thursday night investigators still had not identified the attackers.

"But we believe there are between five and seven of them and we're pretty sure they fled into those hills and are still there," he said. "We'll get them."

Four of the victims shot to death in the holdup Wednesday were identified by an Eastern Air Lines spokesman in Miami as Mr. and Mrs. Richard W.

Bumpers said with a smile. The Republican nominee also charged generally that the progress of the Bumpers administration "consists entirely of cabinet shuffling, fund shuffling, fence straddling and vote-getting stands."

"Brick and mortar progress and human-needs progress are hardly visible, if at all," Blaylock said.

Bumpers said afterward,

"Well, this is a political year."

Blaylock said that at the end of the 1971 fiscal year the state apparently attempted to use up balances in state agency funds by buying more than 100 vehicles purchased for the State Police, but that the vehicles still sit idle.

He said this was an apparent contradiction of Bumpers' Aug. 26 statement that improved fiscal management in his administration had "discouraged and prevented last-minute expenditure of funds simply because they were there."

Bumpers said that the purchase of the vehicles was made annually to replace part of the State Police fleet and that the purchase was made in the normal course of events.

Blaylock also cited a newspaper article quoting Bumpers as saying at the Southern Governors Conference, "Government cannot be run like a business."

This, Blaylock said, contradicts Bumpers' political advertisements, which say, "State government is now run like a business under the Bumpers' administration."

Blaylock also said that he would announce now that on Oct. 1 welfare recipients will receive an increase in the grants they receive from the state.

He said Bumpers had been "clandestine about it" in violation of a 1970 campaign pledge to make welfare grant increases as soon as funds become available without holding back the increases to a time when they might have greater political impact.

Blaylock also said that Bumpers distorted the truth on Aug. 26 by saying that $138 million in unexpended state funds was being returned to state coffers.

Entrants for contests needed

Contestants for "queen" and talent contests for the Third District Livestock Show to be held here Sept. 25-30 are being sought from Hempstead County.

The deadline for entering the "fair queen," "Little Miss Fair Queen" and the talent competition is Monday and applications are available at Overturf's Shoe Store.

The Fair Queen Contest will be held on Monday, Sept. 25 and contestants from 17 counties will compete for the title. Contestants must be between the ages of 16 and 21 and not have been married.

The Little Miss Fair Queen will be selected on poise, personality and appearance and the contest is open to any pre-school girl.

Winners of the district competition will receive $100, $75, and $50 for first, second, and third place finishes respectively.

Israeli jets attack Arab guerrilla bases

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Israeli air force planes struck at 10 Arab guerrilla bases deep inside Syria and Lebanon today, a few hours after Israel promised retaliation for the Munich massacre.

The Israeli jets bombed and strafed guerrilla bases and headquarters, striking within four miles of the Syrian capital of Damascus and far into the north of Lebanon above the port of Tripoli, the military command announced.

The raids were the deepest air strikes by Israel inside Syria since the 1967 Mideast war, and the deepest ever into Lebanon.

All the Israeli planes returned safely to base, a command spokesman said. Sources in Beirut reported the Israeli planes bombed and strafed two villages on the Lebanese-Syrian border, Deir Al Achaya and Yanta. The villages were last hit by the Israelis in July in retaliation for the Lod airport massacre and Palestinian raids into Israel.

There was no immediate confirmation from the Lebanese government.

The two villages, near the Beirut-Damascus highway, are believed to be guerrilla supply points for a road that leads through southern Syria to guerrilla bases on the Lebanese-Israeli border.

An Israeli government spokesman said the planes hammered seven bases and guerrilla headquarters in Syria and three in Lebanon.

Among the Lebanese targets was Nahar El Bared, a refugee camp 75 miles north of Beirut, near the oil port city of Tripoli. Reports from Lebanon said there were believed to be many casualties at that camp.

Residents of Tripoli, Lebanon's second-largest city, said the planes flew over it but that they heard no explosions.

The Israeli military command gave no estimate of Arab casualties, and did not specify whether the air raids were vengeance attacks for the Arab terrorist killing of 11 Israeli sportsmen at the Olympic Games.

There also was no word on whether the raids were reprisals for small clashes along Israel's northern frontiers in the past two days, or were part of a large-scale assault to carry out Israel's determination to liquidate the Arab guerrilla movements.

The Syrian government has put its armed forces on maximum alert and canceled all leaves, fearing an Israeli attack in retaliation for the killings in Munich, travelers arriving

Israel, on paper, lacking in money, manpower, defense

LONDON (AP) — Soviet military influence in the Middle East remains strong despite the withdrawing of most of the 20,000-man Soviet contingent from Egypt, an authoritative research center reported today.

The International Institute for Strategic Studies estimated there are still about 1,000 Soviet military instructors and advisers in Algeria, at least 1,200 in Iraq, up to 2,000 in Syria and up to 1,000 in the two Yemens.

This does not include the pool of instructors, technicians and specialists unaffected by Egyptian President Anwar Sadat's expulsion order.

The institute acknowledged that the departure of large numbers of Soviet pilots and rocket specialists not only weakened Egypt's air defenses and the Soviet position in the Eastern Mediterranean but also transformed the over-all strategic situation in the Middle East.

It suggested some of those who had to quit Egypt may have been moved to Iraq, with which Moscow entered a 15-year defense alliance last April.

The report on the Middle East was part of the institute's annual survey of the military scene around the world.

It showed that Israel, despite its Arab neighbors' recognized inability to defeat it in battle, is on paper at a huge disadvantage in manpower, money and air defenses.

Israel's defense budget is $1.24 billion. The budgets of Egypt, Iraq, Jordan, Lebanon and Syria total $2.75 billion.

Israel has 432 combat aircraft; those of its neighbors total 1,235, with Egypt having 768.

The Israeli have 25,000 regular troops and 52,000 conscripts and can mobilize 300,000 reserves within 72 hours. The military manpower of its neighbors amount together to 622,000 men.

Israel gets most of its military needs from the United States on commercial terms, through credits and occasionally by grant. It produces many weapons.

Soviet military aid has been freely available for years to Egypt, Syria and Iraq as well as to other countries in the Arab world.

Wholesale prices take big hike in 1st year of control

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government said today wholesale prices rose faster in the first year of President Nixon's wage-price control than the year before and blamed it on stepped-up price hikes for farm products, some of which are exempt from controls.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said a broad range of wholesale prices for food, industrial raw materials and manufactured goods rose an average of two-tenths of one per cent in August, bringing the past year's rise to 4.4 per cent since Nixon first imposed economic controls.

"This compares with a rise of 4 per cent in the preceding 12-month period," it said. "The larger advance in the latest 12 months was due to an acceleration of prices of raw and processed agricultural products."

Raw farm products are exempt from the federal price controls. The report added that by comparison, prices of industrial goods rose 3 per cent in the past year compared with 4.4 per cent in the previous year before price controls.

The report said that in August, the over-all rise in the Wholesale Price Index on a seasonally adjusted basis rose six-tenths of one per cent because food prices did not fall as much as they usually do for that month.

Farm products rose two-tenths of one per cent last month while processed foods and animal feeds declined four-tenths of one per cent.

The August rise brought the government's Wholesale Price Index up to 119.9 per cent of its 1967 base of 100. This means it cost wholesalers last month $119.90 on the average for wholesale purchases of food, raw materials and manufactured goods worth $100 five years ago.

The report also said that in the past six months the index stepped up at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of increase of 5.4 per cent.

"Prices in the last three months of the period rose about twice as fast in the first three months as a result of the sharp rise in prices of farm products and processed foods and feeds since June," the report said. The over-all rise of prices of foods and feeds in the past six months was at a seasonally adjusted rate of 8.4 per cent.

The report said prices of fruits and vegetables rose 6.9 per cent in August and were 19.8 per cent above a year earlier, grains were up 3.6 per cent for the month and 7.5 per cent for the year, livestock dropped 2.8 per cent in August but was up 22.1 per cent for the year, egg prices dropped 2.8 per cent for the month and were down 9.8 per cent for the year.

In processed foods, meats, poultry and fish dropped 2.6 per cent in August and were up 12.4 per cent for the year, processed fruits and vegetables were up five-tenths of one per cent for the month and 3.4 per cent for the year, dairy products were up eight-tenths of one per cent last month and 2.8 per cent above a year ago and cereal and bakery products rose 1.5 per cent in August and 3.5 per cent over the year.

Enrollment figures increase slightly

Enrollment figures for Hope schools for the first week show a slight increase over May's year-end total, according to James Jones, superintendent of schools.

Jones said 2,869 students were enrolled as of Wednesday, an increase of 25 over the 2,844 students enrolled at the end of school last spring.

Grades 7-8 showed the biggest increase in enrollment, he said, with 551 students enrolled, but grades 1-6 and 9-12 showed slight decreases in enrollment figures. In high school, 885 students are enrolled at present, and 1,433 have been registered in grades 1-6.

Jones said he expects about 50 more students to enroll during the next few weeks.

Syrian government --

Israeli forces made an eight-hour raid into southern Lebanon Thursday, but no major fighting or casualties were reported. The Palestinian guerrillas in Beirut charged Israel with an "unprecedented buildup" along the Lebanese and Syrian borders and said they expected retaliation for the Arab attack on Israel's Olympic team.

But the Israelis said the raid Thursday was in reply to a guerrilla incursion across the border Wednesday in which an Israeli soldier and two Arabs were killed.

The travelers said the Syrians think the Israelis will attack their international trade fair, now under way in Damascus. They said anti-aircraft guns were moved into position around the fair grounds and tanks were posted in groves of trees near the defense ministry and the radio and television stations all located near the fair.

Sources in Damascus, reached from Beirut by telephone, agreed with the reports of an Israeli buildup along the Syrian and Lebanese borders. One source said three Israeli armored brigades were massed on the Golan Heights, which Israel seized from Syria in the 1967 war.

The Israeli army refused to comment.

But Yigal Allon, Israel's deputy premier, issued a warning

Thursday of trouble for Arab countries which harbor terrorists. They "will bear the responsibility for the terrorists' acts," Allon said at a memorial service for the 11 Olympic team members slain at Munich.

An Israeli spokesman said the raid into Lebanon Thursday was in search of the guerrillas who clashed with Israeli troops near the border settlement of Baran. He said the guerrillas had fled to Yaroun, a village over the border in Lebanon. The Israelis said they went a mile into Lebanon and stayed eight hours, but the spokesman did not mention any fighting.

A Lebanese army communique said the Israelis were in Yaroun for 10 minutes shortly after noon and returned again at dusk for two hours. It said explosions and machine-gun bursts were heard from the village.

The Lebanese Army has only nominal control of the border villages in southeast Lebanon, leaving them to the guerrillas. But the army said its troops challenged a guerrilla group carrying supplies to the border after the Israelis left and killed one man when the group failed to stop.

Rules change rejected

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A Pulaski County proposal to change party rules to provide for State Committee members to be chosen closer to the local level was rejected Thursday 8-6 by the state Democratic party's Rules Committee.

The losers blamed Gov. Dale Bumpers.

John I. Purtle of Little Rock left the meeting room and told reporters, "You've just seen the steamroller."

Asked who was driving it, Purtle said, "Mr. Bumpers."

The vote rejecting the proposal came after Atty. Gen. Ray Thornton Jr. of Sheridan, the Democratic nominee in the 4th Congressional District, called the proposal "useful, forward-looking and progressive."

Thornton said he would "strongly recommend" the adoption of the proposal.

The committee met to adopt recommendations for the order of state party convention business, permanent convention officers, convention rules and party rules for consideration at the state Democratic Convention, which opened today and runs through Saturday.

Purtle and Roger Mears Jr. of Little Rock, chairman of the Pulaski County Democratic Committee, had argued for their proposed change in the rules on grounds that it was in line with national party trends toward taking the political machinery to the people.

The Pulaski proposal was intended to "broaden, strengthen and simplify" the party rules, which he said had helped the "few in power" in the past retain control over the party apparatus, Mears said.

"If we have people with the feeling that they have little control, except to rubber-stamp what the power group dictates, then there is a question of whether this party is going to be a democratic party in name only," Mears said.

After amendments, the Pulaski proposal provided that every county would have at least one representative on the State Committee and that a county would have an additional representative for each 6,000 votes cast for the Democratic candidate for governor in the last preceding general election. But a key aspect of the proposal was that the representatives would be chosen by county committees. Under existing rules, State Committee members are chosen by caucuses at the congressional district level.

Mears pointed out that in the district containing Pulaski County, few other counties in the district have a chance of electing representatives to the State Committee because Pulaski has so many more votes than every other county. He said the Pulaski proposal would be fairer to the other counties.

Oponents of adoption of the Pulaski proposal said it was too near the convention to be tinkering with the party rules on short notice. Several committee members said they saw the Pulaski proposal for the first time Thursday when they came to the meeting room.

If the Rules Committee had adopted the proposal it still would have had to be considered by the state convention.

Bugging attempt at Demo headquarters

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some of the men accused of breaking into the Democratic national headquarters also staged an abortive attempt to bug George McGovern's presidential campaign headquarters, says McGovern's campaign director, Lawrence F. O'Brien.

O'Brien said passersby scared the men off as they assembled at 3 a.m. May 27 outside McGovern's former Capitol Hill headquarters.

Although McGovern was not nominated as the Democratic candidate until July 12, he was then the frontrunner.

Citing "unimpeachable authority" as his source, O'Brien said Thursday he also had learned that two telephones at Democratic National Committee headquarters, including his own, were tapped for several weeks prior to the June 17 break-in at DNC headquarters in the downtown Watergate Hotel complex.

O'Brien was party chairman at the time.

Five men, including two with close ties to the Committee for the Re-Election of President Nixon, were arrested and elaborate eavesdropping and photographic equipment seized inside the DNC offices.

In New York, Clark MacGregor, chairman of the Nixon reelection effort, said the men involved in the break-in thought that they were doing the party a favor. He said that, instead, they had embarrassed the GOP and its leaders. MacGregor said the break-in was "a wholly unauthorized activity... a bizarre, stupid, idiotic, absolutely unnecessary enterprise."

And Republican National Committee Chairman Robert Dole said O'Brien's statements were an effort to divert public attention from what he called "strong evidence of illegality in the McGovern campaign fundraising operation."

Dole also said he had no knowledge of the break-in.

O'Brien has filed a $1 million civil suit against the five suspects.

O'Brien said the June 17 break-in was to repair a faulty phone tap and to implant a bugging device near his office.

1 soldier is killed

SAIGON (AP) — One American was killed in combat last week, the lowest death toll in nine months, but five more were missing in aircraft crashes and 28 were wounded in artillery barrages, the U.S. Command announced today.

Another American died from nonhostile causes.

Spokesmen said the last week in which only one combat death was reported was nine months ago, in December 1971.

Heavy Vietnamese casualties continued to reflect the hard fighting in Hanoi's six-month-old offensive.

People in the News

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Entertainer Juliet Prowse and John McCook, the father of the singer-dancer's child born Aug. 2, will marry Saturday, a spokesman for Miss Prowse says.

The two took out a marriage license Thursday in nearby Santa Monica, the spokesman added.

In August, Miss Prowse, 35, traveled to Stateline, Nev., to marry McCook, 28, but the wedding was delayed when she gave birth to a boy, Seth, at Barton Memorial Hospital in Lake Tahoe. She had said earlier that she did not believe in marriage.

McCook is an actor-singer who performed in Miss Prowse's nightclub act. This is the second marriage for both.

NEW YORK (AP) — Henry S. Coleman, dean of students at Columbia College, has returned to his job, a month-and-a-half after he was shot six times by a disgruntled student.

"I've been working with students for 24 years and I'm not going to start worrying now,"

Coleman said Thursday. Police said they still were searching for the alleged assailant, Eldridge McKinney, who was seeking reinstatement to the college when the shooting occurred. McKinney had been suspended for poor grades.

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — Boris Spassky, the dethroned world chess champion, says he would like another chance at Bobby Fischer, and he admitted that the American chess genius picked off his title because of superior play.

"I would be happy to meet my good friend Bobby Fischer anywhere, anytime," a tired-looking Spassky said after arriving Thursday in Copenhagen from Reykjavik, site of the title match.

"I really like Bobby Fischer in spite of the nervous tension and several delays at the beginning of our match in Iceland, and I don't mind admitting he played better than I did and thus deserved the world chess crown," Spassky said at an airport news conference.

Business should study Mafia workings

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — Top executives might improve the way they run major corporations by studying the inner workings of the Mafia, a management expert says.

A. J. Tasca, manager of corporate manpower development for Control Data Corp., Minneapolis, Minn., said Thursday that one reason the Mafia has survived for seven centuries is its unique organization.

While large American corporations such as IBM and Control Data have put in up to 10 levels of management as they've grown, Tasca said the Mafia has stuck with only three or four levels.

He explained that by the time a decision filters through 10 management levels, "the information is so massaged that you question it."

On the other he said, if it goes through only three or four levels there's much less chance for error.

Tasca, 34, who was born in Sicily and has studied the Mafia all his life, spoke at a one-day conference here sponsored by the Center for Organization and Manpower Development, part of the School of Business at California State University, San Jose.

"American corporations tend to become happy with themselves as they get bigger... and sometimes end up pushing products that were out of style five years ago," he said.

To the contrary, the Mafia "has a minimum of bureaucracy and a fast reaction to changing conditions... They appear always to be growing and changing."

In private business, Tasca said, there is "a lot of nepotism interaction between top executives and employees. He said this often leads to decisions being made on the basis of emotion not performance.

But in the Mafia, the boss does not fraternize with his employes just with other bosses and his decisions "are much more businesslike," he said.

Pair of opposites winners in contest

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — The second round of preliminary competition in the Miss America pageant produced a pair of opposites: A swimsuit winner who can't swim and a talent winner who already has proved her talent professionally.

Miss Indiana, 23-year-old Rebecca Sue Graham of Indianapolis, won the swimsuit contest in Thursday night's preliminaries, and Miss Wisconsin, Terry Anne Meeuwse, took the talent prize.

Miss Meeuwse, also 23 and a student at St. Norbert College, sang two years professionally with The New Christy Minstrels and has had her own nightclub act.

Helen Help Us!

HELEN BOTTEL

Their In-Laws on the Outs

Dear Helen:
My husband's parents don't like my parents, for no good reason. My folks are warm, loving and understanding and I'm proud of them.

But his folks refuse to come to our daughter's first birthday party if mine are there. My husband suggests we have two parties on different days. I think this is idiotic, and his parents childish and selfish to expect it.

Am I unreasonable to set one date and stick to it? I can force a whole chain of double celebrations if I know how now. —IN-LAWED OUT

Dear ILO:
No, you're not unreasonable. Why not ask both sets of parents to one birthday celebration but mention that if they prefer to drop in at different hours, to feel free.

The in-laws who refuse deserve leftover cake next day—or perhaps they'll plan their own birthday party for their granddaughter. —H.

Dear Helen:
This is a warning to women who give up everything to put their husbands through college: if he won't work too, at a night or part-time job, maybe you got a lazy, egotistical bum, like I did.

I spent three years waiting tables and typing, so my husband could get his degree. I paid the bills while he spent the money. He turned down easy work, saying, he had to concentrate on his courses.

Well, he graduated and got a good spot with a big company. And now he's "too good" for me. Says I look and talk cheap. He goes out with his friends and

Junior Auxiliary slates supper

Mrs. Bob Kellam and Mrs. Bennett Wood have been named chairmen of this year's spaghetti supper sponsored by the Hope Junior Auxiliary. Proceeds from the supper will be used for two scholarships for Hope High School students. In addition to a $500 college scholarship there is a $50 scholarship to a vo-tech school. The spaghetti supper is scheduled for Friday, Sept. 15, before the Hope-Arkadelphia football game. Serving hours will be from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Hope High School cafeteria. The menu will feature spaghetti, french bread, green salad, fruit cobbler and coffee. The price is $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children. Tickets may be purchased from any Junior Auxiliary member in advance, or may be purchased at the door.

Jerri Pruden addresses Republican Women's Club

"In 1976 I hope I can go back again," said Mrs. Jerri Pruden, delegate to the Republican National Convention last month, as she spoke before the Hempstead County Republican Women's Club in a meeting at the home of Miss Effie Shell Tuesday evening, September 5.

Mrs. Pruden gave her impression of the National Republican Convention as being exhaustive but one of the most enjoyable weeks she had ever spent. She distributed momentos and keepsakes from the meeting for the other club members to see.

During a business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Clarence Geist, a White Elephant Sale was planned for the second week in October, and the State Republican Convention was announced for September 16 in North Little Rock. At the same time the convention will be held, a fund raising dinner in Little Rock will have Mrs. Connie Armitage, co-chairman of the National Republican Committee, as the Keynote Speaker.

Mrs. Lynn Harris, local campaign director, told the group of plans made to help the candidates in this area.

Miss Shell served cold drinks and snacks to the members present.

Crochet a shawl for summer

By JUDY LOVE

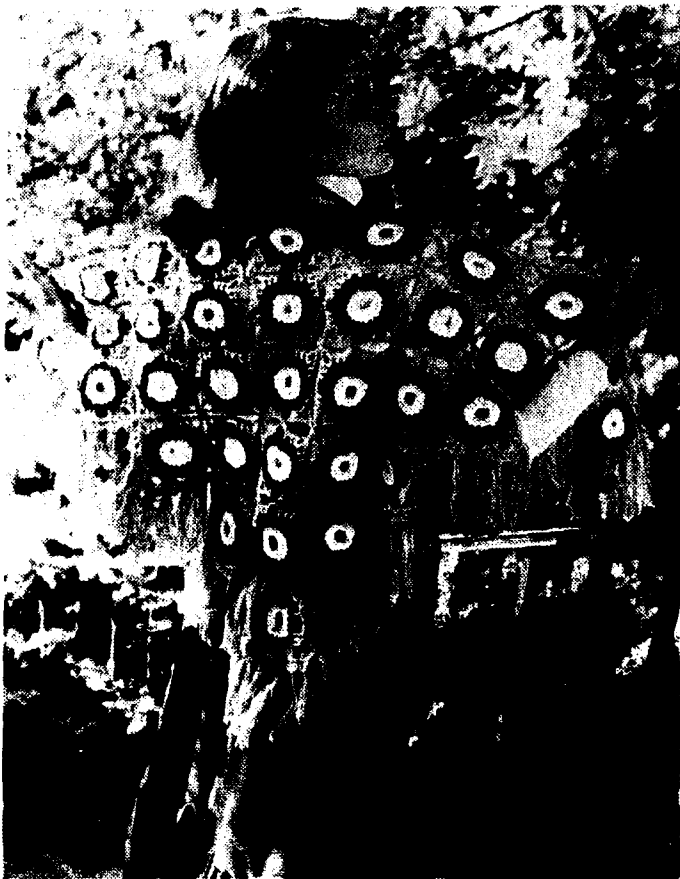

For a day- or night-time silhouette that's simply lovely, drape this crochet motif shawl across your shoulders. Fashion is feminine this summer and the flowing look, the way a shawl clings is the perfect complement for every lady-like look.

If you've never owned a shawl, you've truly missed that wonderfully feminine feeling that wearing one gives. Light, soft and airy, shawls let you move freely and gracefully.

Best of all, there's no worrying about carrying a coat or where you're going to put it when it's off. A shawl is easy to wear and totally comfortable to keep with you through the day or evening. Bundle up for breezes or drape it loosely during warmer hours.

Start crocheting this flattering three-color shawl with a size J crochet hook, using three balls of your MC (main color) and one ball each of color A and B—all in Bernat Berella Germantown yarn. You need only five 2 oz. balls of yarn to work into a most unusual, flirtatious shawl.

The motifs are quickly crocheted from the center outward, beginning with color A, then B and finally the MC. When all the motifs are complete, join them together, shaping as you go. A clear, easy-to-follow chart will show you how. When the shawl is completed, finish with edging and then a final fringe trim. Steam lightly—no blocking required.

Cozy, coquettish and simply feminine, this crochet motif shawl is the perfect complement for every ladylike look this summer. Working with a size J crochet hook, you'll use only five balls of yarn to work this three-color cover-up.

All you need are working ladies, no matter how tall or how small you are, you'll love donning this perfectly pretty shawl this season.

KNIT KNACKS

Dear Judy—Am thinking about fall already, would you believe! We knitters have to plan ahead. I work very well with pairs of needles, but the skirt I have in mind requires a circular needle, which I've never used, to work a stocking stitch. I would appreciate some encouragement before I purchase all the materials. Thank you—K. A., Salem, Mass.

Dear K. A.—Knitting ahead is smart, and you sound like one of those efficient planners I admire so much. Knitting with a circular needle is really very easy. "Try it. You'll like it!"

You cast on the required number of stitches just as you normally do. One thing to watch out for is a twisted stitch. Keep them straight.

Now insert the point of the needle into the first st. which you've cast on, and again knit in the ordinary way. Your work is joined in a circle and you keep going round and round, achieving the same effect you do when you work with four needles.

The result is the smooth fabric which is also called Stocking St. Fancy patterns and ribbing are also possible, working on a circular needle.

Seems simple; well it is. So do think about knitting for fall while you're enjoying this summer. —Judy Love.

MCVIE NAMED EHL PLAYER-COACH

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Tom McVie was named Thursday player-coach of the Eastern Hockey League's Johnstown Jets. He was given a one-year contract.

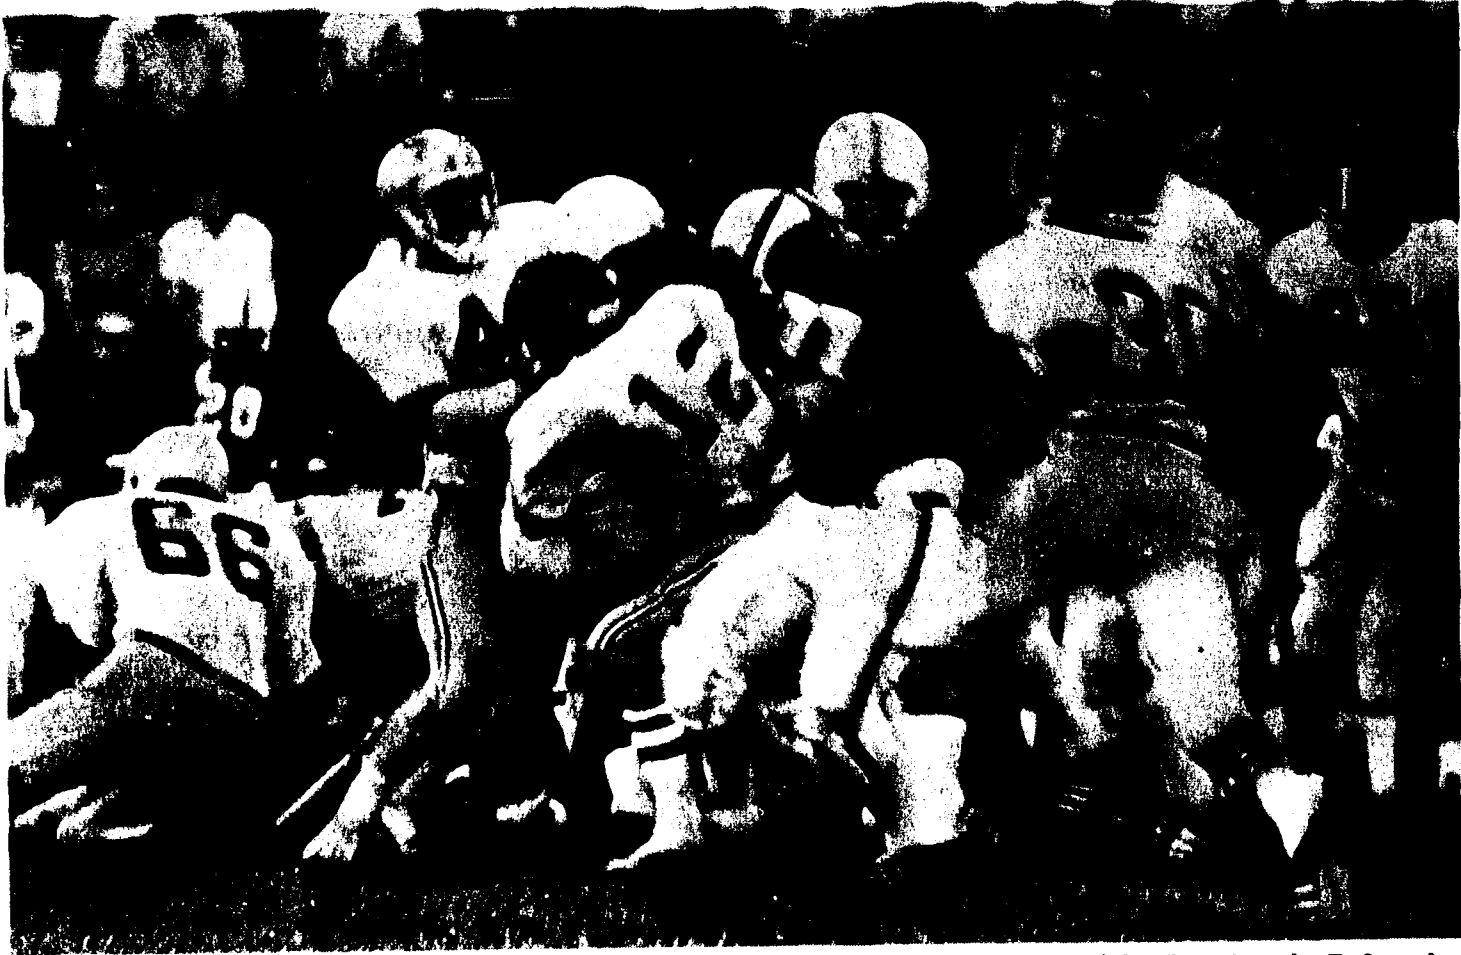

McVie, 37, replaces Eddie Kachur, who suffered a shoulder separation last year and was unable to return as a player for the 1972-73 season.

Hank Iba prepared for its title showdown with Russia.

"We'll have a tough time keeping them off the backboards," Iba said of the Russians Thursday night after his kids demolished Italy 68-38 in the semifinal game which followed the Soviet Union's 87-61 triumph over Cuba. Both teams carry 8-0 records into Saturday night's gold-medal final.

Matthews and Rod Milburn highlighted the best day the American track and field squad has had at these 20th Summer Olympic Games—but some of Matthews' and Collett's actions on the victory stand, somehow reminiscent of the black-gloved protest by U.S. athletes four years ago, angered some of the 80,000 Olympic Stadium spectators.

Milburn, from Opelouses, La., stood erect, facing the flag as the Star-Spangled Banner was played after he'd won the 110-meter hurdles in a world record-equalling 13.2 seconds. France's Guy Drut was second.

BOBKITTEN ACTION—The Hope Bobkittens fought hard for every inch of ground in their opening game of the season against the Prescott

Curly Wolves. Final score was Prescott 8, Hope 0. (See article at right.)

Bobcats face Wolves tonight in Prescott

ALAN FOSTER

Ever since Hope started playing Prescott there has been a rivalry. In the series which dates way back Hope holds an overwhelming edge. But that's history and both teams will face the present tonight as the Bobcats travel to Prescott to take on the Curly Wolves.

Prescott opened by whalloping Bearden 48-0. This alone shows that this year's Wolves are better than Coach Charles Montgomery was willing to admit in his pre-season comments.

Prescott would like nothing better than to beat Hope tonight. They haven't beaten Hope in years and this is the year they claim that they will do it.

But there are a few factors standing in Prescott's way:

No. 1: Hope hasn't opened their season with a win in five years; they did this last week and will be fighting to stay undefeated.

No. 2: Can Prescott hold up to Hope's explosive offense? Which seems to be able to break games wide open when ever they desire to?

No. 3: Hope's defense is no longer a question mark. It proved that it could get the job done last week against Ash-down.

Prescott is rated No. 1 in Class A by most experts but that could change tonight.

U.S. black athletes banned

MUNICH (AP) — The International Olympic Committee today banned two U.S. black athletes from the games for what it called a "disgusting" display on the victory stand, and the head of the American team immediately asked for a review of the decision.

Clifford Buck, chief of the U.S. Olympic delegation, requested the IOC to rescind its action.

Failing that, Buck asked for a hearing, with the two athletes and representatives of the U.S. Olympic Committee attending.

The IOC executive board banned American track stars Vince Matthews and Wayne Collett, both black, from future Olympic competition, including the 1,600-meter relay Sunday, because of their behavior on the field.

An IOC spokesman said a letter had been sent to Buck, expressing its "displeasure and disgust at the demonstration by the American athletes" after the 400-meter final.

Matthews won the gold Thursday, and Collett the silver. During traditional victory ceremonies, Collett hopped onto the No. 1 platform to join Matthews, and both slouched, laughed and chatted during the playing of the National Anthem.

The German crowd roundly booed them, and Collett answered with the clenched fist salute.

Hogs favored over Trojans

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Thank goodness the contest Saturday night between the University of Southern California and Arkansas is a football game and not a wrestling match.

Physically, the eighth-ranked Trojans are awesome.

Mervin Johnson, defensive coordinator for the fourth-ranked Razorbacks, says, "I think it will be a real shock to our fans—hopefully not to our squad—to see this team take the field. You don't realize how big, and strong, and physical they are."

With Joe Ferguson at quarterback, Arkansas should have an edge in execution.

The difference may be at quarterback and Ferguson is on Arkansas' side.

ARKANSAS 28, SOUTHERN CAL 24

But after Matthews and Collett finished 1-2 in the 400-meter dash, Collett stepped up from his tier and joined Matthews on the No. 1 perch as the national anthem began. They stood sideways, facing away from the flag, Matthews with his arms folded and Collett with hands on hips, chatting occasionally as the music played on.

And when the ceremony ended, Matthews walked toward the stands, twirling the gold medal on its chain as the whistles and boos rolled down upon the field.

Was it a protest? "No way," replied Matthews, the speedster from Brooklyn, N.Y., who had been clocked in 44.66 seconds to the 44.80 by his silver-winning teammate from Santa Monica, Calif.

But Collett wasn't as emphatic in his denial. When asked why he hadn't stood at attention during the national anthem, he said: "I couldn't do it with a clear conscience."

Abusive language gets Crawford into trouble

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

"Let's go, let's go," said catcher John Bateman of the Philadelphia Phillies.

"Don't tell me what to do," said umpire Shag Crawford.

"I'm not telling you what to do," said Bateman.

"Bleep you," said Crawford.

And that little "bleep" will get Crawford into hot water with the National League front office, according to Bateman.

The catcher says he's reporting the umpire for using abusive language during Thursday night's 2-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

"I'm reporting his bleep," said Bateman, describing the alleged fifth-inning incident.

Bateman said that he objected to the plate umpire's call on a pitch thrown by Steve Carlton. Bateman insisted it was a strike, not a ball as called by Crawford.

"I said to him: 'let's go, let's go,'" said Bateman. "He walked in front of the plate and said to me: 'Don't tell me what to do.' I said: 'I'm not telling you what to do!' He then said, 'Bleep you.'"

Bateman said he would write a letter to National League President Chub Feeney about the incident. "I've paid fines for saying less than that," snapped Bateman.

In the umpire's dressing room, Crawford was "bleeping" mad. "Bleep him," said Crawford. "That's what I told him and I'm saying it again. That bleeping butcher. He's a beggar—begging for strikes."

The excitement in Philadelphia created a stir in an otherwise dull September of run-away division races. The Pittsburgh Pirates held a 12½-game lead in the East after Thursday night's 4-2 loss to the Chicago Cubs and the Cincinnati Reds are 7½ games in front in the West despite losing a doubleheader to the San Diego Padres, 2-0 and 5-1.

Prescott downs Hope

By RICKY FAWCETT
Star Sports Writer

Showing good defense except for one moment, the Hope Bobkittens opened their season last night in Prescott. That one moment proved fatal for the Kittens as Prescott scored the only touchdown and won 8-0.

The first half was a defensive struggle with Prescott making the only threat. A partially blocked punt gave the Cubs possession on the Kitten 20. However, the Hope defense then stopped Prescott to end the first half.

Taking the second half kickoff, Hope could do nothing. Once again a bad punt gave the Cubs control at the Bobkitten 21. Four plays later with 3:02 left in the third quarter, Melvin Hays scored the lone touchdown. The two point conversion was good and Prescott led 8-0.

Jimmy Williams then took the kickoff to the Cub 29. Three plays later on 4th and 10, Mark Harris hit Leonard Brown at the Cub 9. Prescott rose to the occasion and took over on downs to end the third quarter.

The fourth quarter was an exchange of short gainers and punts, with Prescott having possession at the gun. Final score: Prescott 8, Hope 0.

Razorbacks will have tough time

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles is afraid the University of Southern California football team is going to be stingy Saturday night.

"We're going to have a tough time getting the ball away from them," Broyles said. "The experience of their team is on offense. Teams that have done well against them have kept the ball away from them. You've got to hope you'll have the ball your percentage of the time."

The game between Broyles' fourth-ranked Razorbacks and the eighth-ranked Trojans is the first ever between the two national powers. The Razorbacks are considered a slight favorite.

Broyles is worried about Arkansas being a "complete team." USC Coach John McKay is concerned about his inexperienced defense holding up against Joe Ferguson and company.

"You've got to be a complete team when you play a team like Southern Cal," Broyles said. "You've got to cover kicks, return kicks, cover the passes, pounce on any fumbles and be able to run and throw. When you play a poor team you don't have to be able to do all these things. We've worked on all those things, but I don't know how we'll do."

McKay says his defensive unit has talent, but adds: "I shudder when I think of sending some of our youngsters against an accomplished passer such as Ferguson."

Ferguson completed 59 per cent of his passes for more than 2,200 yards last year and Broyles calls him a legitimate Heisman Trophy candidate.

"Arkansas will move the ball well on us, or else they're not the offensive team I think they are," McKay said. He added, however, that he also expected his Trojans to fare well offensively.

"If we have a problem, it will be because their defense is something we don't see much of," he said. "Arkansas may be better defensively than they are offensively and they do have that quickness that we seldom face."

Broyles says USC's offense will put particular pressure on the Razorbacks' defensive ends—Les Williams (5-10, 197), Ray Strain (6-1, 198) and Steve Landrum (6-3, 210).

"They've got big backs to block our ends and the speed to get around them," Broyles said.

Ferguson will be throwing to Mike Reppond, third in the nation in receiving last year with 56 catches for 986 yards, and Jim Hodge.

In addition to national honors, conference pride is at stake. Southern Cal has not lost to a Southwest Conference team since 1960, winning seven straight. USC is the preseason favorite in the Pacific-8 and Arkansas is the preseason choice in the SWC.

A capacity crowd of more than 53,000 is expected for the 7:30 p.m. CDT kickoff.

Red Sox grab first place

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Never before has one game meant so much to so many Sox. In Boston, the Red Sox trounced the New York Yankees 10-4 Thursday night and moved into first place in the topsy-turvy American League East for the first time all season.

In Chicago, the White Sox whipped Oakland 6-0 in what Manager Chuck Tanner called "our biggest game of the year" and remained within hailing distance in the West Division three games behind the A's.

Elsewhere, Baltimore crushed Detroit 9-0, Minnesota blanked Texas 4-0, Kansas City stopped California 6-0 and Milwaukee whipped Cleveland 7-1.

"It doesn't surprise me that we're in first place," said Boston Manager Eddie Kasko. "I felt that any team with a hot streak would get into first place the way the division stands."

And the Red Sox have been red-hot. They've won three in a row and 11 of 13 and had their fans chanting "We're Number One" in the ninth inning while the scoreboard showed Baltimore wallowing Detroit.

"I heard the fans yelling," said pitcher Sonny Siebert, who hit one of Boston's three home runs, "but I wasn't watching the scoreboard and I didn't make the connection."

Neither was Tommy Harper, who, along with Rico Petrocelli, tagged a three-run homer.

The Red Sox didn't have much to worry about after Harper homered in the second inning and Siebert and Petrocelli connected in the sixth. They lead Detroit by one-half game, with Baltimore 1½ out and New York two back.

Baltimore, which had the first-inning blues against the Yankees (five runs) and Tigers (four runs) in the two previous games, turned the tables and erupted for four runs in the opening frame and three more in the second.

Brooks Robinson and Blair later added two-run triples in support of Mike Cuellar's four-hit pitching.

RACES MAY BE FOR THE BIRDS, as many a pari-mutuel loser has felt from time to time, and at the Illinois State Fair it's literally the case. Stories differ concerning VN action in town

SAIGON (AP)—The Saigon command reported today that its troops abandoned the town of Tien Phuoc south of Da Nang, but an American general near the battlefield said South Vietnamese forces still held "most of the town" and launched a counterattack.

Brig. Gen. Harry H. Hiestand, deputy senior adviser in the northern 1st Military region, said at a forward regimental headquarters near Tien Phuoc that the North Vietnamese had only captured the district headquarters in the northeast corner of Tien Phuoc.

"The enemy are not going to get any further," Hiestand declared. He said the South Vietnamese counterattacked at 3 p.m. and were in the process of retaking the district headquarters.

The South Vietnamese in Saigon had announced a few hours earlier that Tien Phuoc fell to tank-led North Vietnamese forces.

"The defenders retreated from the town to the east," said Lt. Col. Do Viet, a spokesman for the Saigon command. He said they linked up with hundreds of reinforcements that moved into the area on foot and by helicopters.

The government troops are now operating one to 6½ miles east and northeast of Tien Phuoc, Viet said.

There was no word on either military or civilian casualties in Tien Phuoc.

Heavy fighting also was reported on three other fronts:

—The Saigon command claimed 133 North Vietnamese troops killed in the 73-day stalemate battle for Quang Tri City. Twenty-two South Vietnamese soldiers were reported killed and 75 wounded.

—Along the central coastal plain, enemy troops poured 300 mortar rounds into the the command post of a South Vietnamese infantry battalion then launched a ground assault against the camp five miles southeast of the district town of Bong Son. The Saigon command said the attack was repulsed with air and artillery support.

—South Vietnamese forces trying to recapture the Quan Loi air strip 60 miles northeast of Saigon reported killing 41 enemy troops, while losing only one man killed and two wounded. Field reports said the government forces uncovered a North Vietnamese depot containing 60 trucks.

Nixon: The no-new taxes candidate for election

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has staked his claim as the no-new-taxes candidate as White House aides asserted that Democratic foe George McGovern's proposals would double individual taxes.

Through a quartet of spokesmen Thursday, Nixon pledged he would not seek an increase in taxes during a second term. But the spokesmen left open the possibility that he would propose changes in the nation's tax structure.

The President, said White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler, "will not propose a tax increase in or during a second term."

The President, said domestic adviser John Ehrlichman, "will not ask for any higher taxes—period."

The President, said House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford and Senate Leader Hugh Scott, told a White House meeting of Republican congressmen that "there will be no tax increase proposed by this administration."

The triple dose of Nixon views came at a series of White House briefings that also included fresh Republican attacks on McGovern's economic proposals.

Ehrlichman's attack was perhaps the sharpest. He said McGovern's program would require an additional $100 billion and "the inevitable result is that he is going to double" the taxes paid by the individual taxpayer.

McGovern, Ehrlichman added, is a man who "doesn't understand the first thing about the subject" of tax reform and government finance.

While he said it would be premature to divulge specific tax revisions now under administration study, Ehrlichman said the White House would like to reduce residential property taxes by 50 per cent or about $16 billion.

He said there are several ways of accomplishing this goal. One alternative under study is a value-added tax—a sort of national sales tax. Although he said he was "not ruling out any alternative of revenue production," Ehrlichman said the value-added tax appears to be "less desirable than some other alternatives."

One reason, he said, is that some states depend heavily on their own sales taxes.

Another alternative to secure revenue to cut property taxes would be to hold the line on government spending. The President believes, Ehrlichman reported, that he can "operate all necessary federal functions without any additional costs."

At the age of 12 years, Mrs. Hicks was appointed pianist of the Bethel A.M.E. Church. Mrs. Hicks has done extensive study in the area of Solfege (in music, a system by which singing is taught) and serves her choir in voice leadership simultaneously with church organist position.

ARKANSAS DAIRYMEN LOSE COURT BATTLE

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas dairy farmers who market their products through the Associated Milk Producers, Inc., lost their suit in Chancery Court here Thursday.

The farmers sought to cancel their membership and marketing agreements with AMPI, an agricultural cooperative association that operates in 14 states.

Chancellor Murray O. Reed ruled that the agreements were enforceable by AMPI.

The suit was filed March 24 by 42 Arkansas and two Texas farmers seeking a judgment that they could back out of the agreements so they could market their products through the newly organized Southern Milk Producers Association. SMPA was incorporated in Arkansas Feb. 17 by most of the farmers who filed the suit.

Reed said evidence in the case showed that the plaintiffs had knowledge and were aware of the practice of subsidizing of prices and sharing of operating expenses, without protest or objection for more than two years.

Mr. Lambert and bride to live in Arkadelphia

Miss Harriet Elois Hickles and Alvin Lavoyd Lambert of Bearden were united in marriage at seven o'clock in the evening Saturday, August 19, 1972, in the home of the bride's parents.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hickles of Hope and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert of Bearden.

The Rev. Pete Lambert of Camden performed the double ring ceremony. Miss Shariollette Hickles, soloist, and Gwen Edwards, pianist-organist, presented wedding music.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a formal gown of ivory tulle. It was styled with a scoop neckline and long Juliet sleeves. The bodice was overlaid with lace, daisy medallions ornamented the scoop neckline and sleeves. Her camelot cap of lace over satin was also ornamented with medallion trim. Her bridal bouquet was of white asters with matching streamers.

Miss Thelma York of Warren was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Miss Carolyn Hickles. Their identical gowns of lilac dotted swiss had round neckline, short sleeves and softly gathered skirt. The dresses were trimmed with a wide row of lace on both sides, at the front, which extended completely around the hemline.

Matching headdresses were bows attached to lilac net. They carried orchid asters with matching streamers.

Larry Felder of Little Rock was best man. Groomsman was Michael Lambert, brother of the groom.

Vows were exchanged before a background of candles and an arch with greenery and floral baskets of pom-poms.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of turquoise and white carnations at her shoulder. Mother of the groom wore a dress of navy and white with a white carnation corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony. Mrs. Shirley Ross and Miss Linda Williams greeted the guest and presented them to the receiving line.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth. The white three-tiered wedding cake topped with a bride and groom was served by Mrs. Ethel Bizzle. Punch was served by Mrs. Beatrice Walker. They were assisted by Mrs. Emma Edwards and Mrs. Doris Brown. Miss Monda Lambert of Bearden, sister of the groom, presided at the bride's book.

Rice bags were distributed by Misses Carolyn Hickles and Gwen Edwards.

The couple will be at home in Arkadelphia where both are students at Ouachita Baptist University.

Opening lead—♠ K

By Oswald & James Jacoby

There was nothing wrong with South's heart contract except that if West had been a seventh son of a seventh son he could have opened a club and defeated it.

On the other hand, if East and West had just been inclined to bid a little more, South would never have had a chance to play at four hearts.

East might have pulled himself together and given his partner a competitive raise to two spades or West might have elected to try a takeout double with his nice hand. Either way they could have reached the easy spade game.

As it was, South won the spade lead; drew trumps and led a club toward dummy. After this start it was an easy matter for East to win a club, lead a diamond to his partner, win a second club after West led that suit and let West's second diamond trick set the contract.

It was tough luck to find the king and jack of clubs and queen of diamonds in the wrong spots, but a careful South would have made the contract in any event.

After drawing trumps he would lead a low diamond toward dummy, and would have had time to set up his last two diamonds for a discard of one of dummy's clubs.

(NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

♥ CARD Sense ♦

The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
1 ♠	Double	Pass	1 ♠
2 ♣	Pass	Pass	?

You, South, hold:

♠ 8 7 4 3 ♥ 2 ♦ A K 9 4 3 ♣ 7 6 2

What do you do now?

A—Double. No guarantee goes with this double, but it won't give your opponents game and may lead to a juicy penalty.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You do double and North bids two spades. What do you do now?

HIMSTOP, MAN!

...where goest thou? Your struggle is for naught. One can't run away from duty nor from God. The strong arm of conscience, the love of a friend or the power of God won't let one go.

Make no mistake: He is able to hold his children and bend their wills to His. This man is desperate because his aim is low.

He is a timid coward whose church attendance record is now non-existent. But wait. God can still perform miracles and does touch us on the shoulder every time we would go astray. Business successes and friends in big numbers won't help much when the end of the way is nigh.

It takes a touch on the shoulder from God to satisfy man in his last hour. Stop, right now!

That may be God touching your shoulder

A rally against busing cancelled

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A rally against school busing planned by a group of state legislators is off because Gov. Winfield Dunn won't attend. But a march by anti-busers is on for Monday when the city school board meets under a federal judge's order that its members tell him immediately how they'll transport 14,000 pupils. State Rep. Bob Hawks, D-Memphis, said an anti-busing gathering set for Saturday noon at Kingsburg High School was cancelled because the legislators planning it believed it would be in vain. It is off, said Hawks, "because of Gov. Dunn's attitude of not being willing to come down and discuss an urgent problem that directly affects 20,000 to 25,000 people..." Dunn's response in Nashville was that the Memphis Democratic legislators were engaging in "hypocrisy." He said two lawmakers from Memphis are aware of the constitutional considerations he faces. He did not name them. However, in addition to Hawks, State Sen. Edgar Gillock and Rep. Elbert Gill, both D-Memphis, have been in the forefront of an anti-busing campaign in Memphis. Dunn said for the legislators "to use the grief of parents whose children will be bused as a political vehicle is the height of hypocrisy."

Germany attempting to avert Arab retaliation

BONN (AP) — The West German government says it is doing all it can to counter the threat of retaliation from Arab terrorists demanding the release of the three guerrillas held for the attack at the Olympics. The Black September Palestinian group said in a broadcast from Cairo Thursday it would "deal Germany a heavy blow" if the three terrorists are not released. "We will show the German imperialists, who dragged the honor of the great German people in the mud, what a heavy blow we can deal them if our comrades are not released and the bodies of our dead fighters are not returned to us," the broadcast said.

The spokesman for the West German government, Conrad Ahlers, said "all imaginable and necessary" security precautions had been taken. Earlier, the Interior Ministry said it had received word that terrorists planned to mail bombs to Jews in Germany in packages and letters for the Jewish New Year, Rosh Hashanah, which begins at sundown today. Eight Black September terrorists invaded the Israeli quarter at the Olympic Village early Tuesday morning, killed two members of the Israeli Olympic squad, took nine others hostage and threatened to kill them unless Israel released 200 Arab guerrillas serving prison terms in Israel. The incident came to a bloody culmination late that night at a military airfield outside Munich where the terrorists were allowed to take their captives, ostensibly to be flown to the Middle East. But police sharpshooters had set an ambush and in the ensuing gunfight all nine of the Israelis were killed along with a West German policeman and five of the terrorists. The other three Arabs were captured, but so far there has been no announcement of charges being filed against them. The Egyptian government and the Libyan press accused the Bonn government of total responsibility for the killings. "The commandos and the Israeli hostages were killed in a German ambush, by German bullets and in a U.S. base in Germany," said the Egyptians. Services for the slain Arabs were scheduled at all mosques in Egypt today. An Arab lawyers' group announced it was sending an attorney to observe the German police interrogation of the three captive guerrillas.

Attica: A year later

ATTICA, N.Y. (AP) — A year ago this afternoon, Lt. Richard Delaney went into Attica Correctional Facility's A Block yard to break up what he thought was a scuffle between two inmates, and one of the two swung at him. The next morning gallery-mates of the two convicts threw the first fists in an uprising that lasted for 97 hours. By the time the revolt quelled by a State Police assault on Sept. 13, 43 men—32 inmates and 11 prison employees—were dead or dying. One of the employees was injured fatally in the Sept. 9 rioting, the others were hostages of the rebel felons. Today at Attica, a convict population half the size of last fall's and sporting new green work uniforms—watched over by a beefed-up and integrated guard force in new blue blazers—is scheduled for a routine day, their new warden said.

Boyleing it down

NEW YORK (AP) — Reminds a doctor's secretary gets tired of hearing: "Do I get 20 per cent off if I pay his fee in cash right now?" "What do you work for a married doctor for, Maude? If I was a pretty single girl like you, I'd get a job with a doctor who was single." "Could I please have the key to the ladies' room, miss?" "Maude, will you sneak me in to see the doctor at the very first chance? My husband's double-parked outside waiting to take me to the movie." "I've been waiting over an hour now. I thought the reason the doctor started evening hours was so patients wouldn't have to sit around half their lives in his office in order to see him." "If I have to go without my dinner much longer, I won't need to see a doctor. I'll need
